CREDITS

The 2016 Michigan State Volleyball Media Guide is a production of the MSU Athletic Communications Office. Written, designed and edited by athletic communications director Jamie Baldwin. Photography provided by Matthew Mitchell and Rey Del Rio (MSU Athletic Communications), Larry Radloff, Jim Rosvold, Al and Renee Schmitzer (MSU Sideout Club) and the athletic communication archives. Printing by Foresight Group, Lansing, Mich.

Credential Requests

All requests for media credentials must be placed with Jamie Baldwin in the MSU Athletic Communications Office at least 48 hours in advance of the game. Upon acceptance of application, appropriate credentials are held for pickup at the media will-call table at the media entrance at Jenison Field House.

Press Conferences and Media Availability

During the season, head coach Cathy George will be available each Tuesday at MSU's weekly press conference, held at the Tom & Lupe Izzo Media Center in the north end zone of Spartan Stadium. The Tuesday press conference begins at 11 a.m.

All interviews should be arranged through the Jamie Baldwin in the Athletic Communications Office, and player requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance of the interview. Baldwin can be reached via email (jweir@ath.msu.edu); office phone (517.355.2271) or cell phone (517.243.3187). Please note that contact information for student-athletes WILL NOT be made available to reporters, per Department of Athletics policy.

MSU student-athletes are available for interviews immediately before practice. In addition to press conferences, head coach Cathy George is also available prior to practice, or for telephone interviews during the week on non-game days.

Post-match Interviews

Post-match interviews will take place outside of the MSU locker room following a brief 15-minute cooling-off period after the match's completion. MSU head coach Cathy George and selected student-athletes will be available upon request. Interviews with the visiting coach and players should be arranged with the opposing team's media relations contact.

Game Day Services

Game notes, rosters, statistics, media guides and final match statistics will be provided at each home match. Match statistics will be made available to the media following each set and complete stat packets will be made available upon the conclusion of the match. Each will be available on media row, located on the south end of Jenison Field House in the second deck.

Radio Broadcasts

Opponent radio stations wishing to broadcast from Jenison Field House must make arrangements through both the visiting team's SID and Jamie Baldwin no less than one week prior to the game. Space is available for one station per school to broadcast each game. Michigan State will carry a live radio broadcast of Big Ten Conference games, both home and away.

Photographers

All photographers are required to check in on press row on the second level of Jenison Field House to discuss position assignments no later 30 minutes prior to the start of the match.

Television

Several Michigan State volleyball games will appear on television again this year, featured several times on the Big Ten Network. Spartan home games not appearing on live television will be streamed live on Big Ten Digital Network (BTDN). Up-to-date listings for game coverage can be found on MSU's official website, www.msuspartans.com.

www.MSUSpartans.com

The official athletics website for Michigan State University, msuspartans.com, Updated releases, statistics, game notes, player features and interviews are available on the official web site of MSU Athletics. The weekly release also is available via email. Please contact Jamie Baldwin (jweir@ath.msu.edu) to be included on the weekly distribution list.

Directions

Take Exit 8 (Kalamazoo Street) off of I-496 (East or West). Turn right onto Kalamazoo Street; go straight through the light at the intersection of Kalamazoo and Harrison Road onto the MSU campus past Harrison Road and the Breslin Center to Jenison Field House, which is just past the Breslin Center on the left.

Social Media

Michigan State Volleyball (@MichStVB) maintains a twitter feed which will provide in-game updates, links, and news pertaining to coaches, players and alumni. Fans can also get conference Twitter updates by following @B1GVolleyball and @BTNVolleyball.

The program has a strong social media presence across many platforms. Frequent updates can be found on the team's facebook page (www.facebook.com/MichiganStateVB), Instagram and Snapchat (MichStVB) accounts.

BIG LIFE. BIG STAGE. BIG TEN.

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's status as one of the preeminent athletic conferences in the country also endures as an important component of the Big Ten student-athlete experience. Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its student-athletes not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world as well.

PREMIER ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

- The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all 14 Big Ten universities, which is widely considered to be the model for effective and voluntary collaboration among top research universities.
- Every Big Ten Academic Alliance institution ranks among the top 78 universities in the nation according to the 2014 Academic Ranking of World Universities, including six in the top 25.
- The Big Ten leads all conferences with more than 1,600 Academic All-Americans, including 48 honorees during the 2015-16 academic year.
- Big Ten Academic Alliance schools annually conduct $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

A HISTORY OF ATHLETIC SUCCESS

- Big Ten schools have won at least seven national championships in seven of the last eight academic years.
- In the last three full academic years, current Big Ten institutions have claimed 23 team national championships in 14 different sports.
- Over the last 10 full academic years, current Big Ten institutions have won 77 team national titles in 23 different sports.

BROAD-BASED PROGRAMMING

- The Big Ten will administer over $200 million in direct financial support to more than 9,500 students competing in intercollegiate athletics for more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams in 42 different sports.
- The Big Ten sponsors 28 official conference sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse the last three years.
- The Big Ten leads the nation in total students competing in intercollegiate athletics and participation opportunities, and sponsors more official sports than all conferences except the Ivy League.
- Almost 1,400 Big Ten competitors have participated in the Olympics, winning more than 600 medals, including nearly 300 gold. Heading into the 2016 Olympic Games, more than 100 current or former students at current Big Ten institutions were named to Olympic teams.

PASSIONATE FOLLOWING

- The Big Ten leads all conferences with 5.7 million alumni and nearly 580,000 students.
- Each year more than 11 million patrons attend Big Ten home contests, as the conference leads the nation in attendance for men's basketball, hockey, volleyball and wrestling.

LEADERS IN INNOVATION

- Took part in the nation's first bowl game, winning the 1902 Rose Bowl Game, and signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl with permanent conference affiliations.
- Awarded the first Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, honoring outstanding seniors who demonstrated excellence in academics and athletics.
- Formed the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, enlisting former students that competed in conference athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.
- Became the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.
- Implemented the first collegiate football system of instant replay in 2004, which the NCAA approved for use among all conferences in 2006.
- Launched the Big Ten Network (BTN) in 2007, the first national conference-owned television network.
- Began partnering with the Ivy League to study the effects of head injuries in sports in 2012.
- Accepted Johns Hopkins University as the conference's first sport affiliate members in men's and women's lacrosse in 2013 and 2015, respectively.

EXTENSIVE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

- Through the Big Ten's current media agreements with BTN, ABC/ESPN, CBS and FOX, nearly 1,400 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally and globally on an annual basis.
- BTN is in more than 60 million homes across the United States and Canada. BTN2Go is BTN's digital extension, delivering live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. BTN Plus within BTN2Go streams hundreds of additional events each season.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

- For more than 25 years, through the Big Ten's SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday) program, the conference has partnered with
- Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performance.
- Surrounding the Big Ten Football Championship Game and Basketball Tournaments, the conference has held numerous community initiatives, such as the Big Ten Career Expo, SaturDAY of Service and Youth Football Clinics. In addition, the Big Ten has hosted a downtown 5K, collaborated with a local breast cancer awareness group and provided unique event experiences for military veterans.

DR. LOU ANNA K. SIMON

Michigan State University President

Lou Anna K. Simon, the 20th president of Michigan State University, leads the university's work to advance the common good in Michigan and around the world. An MSU graduate, she began her career at Michigan State after earning her doctorate in 1974. From there, she moved into a variety of administrative roles, including assistant provost for general academic administration, associate provost, and provost and vice president for academic affairs. The MSU Board of Trustees appointed her president in January 2005.

As president, Simon has engaged Michigan State in a strategic and transformative journey to adapt the principles of the land-grant tradition to 21st-century challenges. She has expanded MSU's reach in the state and around the world by focusing the university's strengths on solutions that enhance and protect quality of life: clean and affordable energy, access to education, safe and plentiful food, and health care.

Simon's key initiatives, particularly in economic development and international engagement, reflect her commitment to applying knowledge to benefit society and further the global common good. Simon is a member of the American Council on Education and the Council on Competitiveness, a nonpartisan, nongovernmental organization working to ensure U.S. prosperity. She serves as chair of the National Security Higher Education Advisory Board, a group of presidents and chancellors of several prominent U.S. universities that consults regularly with national agencies responsible for security, intelligence, and law enforcement. She also serves on the National Collegiate Athletic Association Board of Governors and is vice chair of the Association of American Universities.

Simon's resolute commitment to advancing Michigan's economic future has been a hallmark of her presidency. She serves on the board of directors of Business Leaders for Michigan and the Detroit Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago and is an advisory committee member of the Detroit Innovation District, which promotes small business growth and job creation in the city. In the area of international engagement, Simon is a member of the executive committee of the Partnership to Cut Hunger and Poverty in Africa.

Research at Michigan State University reflects Simon's commitment to advancing knowledge and discovery to improve quality of life. Under her leadership, MSU has expanded its research in, among other areas, biofuels and green energy, medicine and medical technology, physics and rare isotopes, safe water, and agriculture to address world hunger. With the support of external funding now exceeding $500 million annually, Simon is helping ensure that MSU makes a significant positive difference locally and globally.

MARK HOLLIS

Michigan State University Athletics Director

"We gather and engage our community to teach, support and celebrate our student-athletes in their quest for excellence."

This is the vision Michigan State Athletics Director Mark Hollis has for Spartan Athletics. Hollis, who was named the 2012 Athletic Director of the Year by Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal/Daily, is in his ninth year leading the MSU Athletics Department. He officially assumed the role of MSU's 18th athletics director on Jan. 1, 2008, succeeding Ron Mason.

Hollis has more than 30 years of athletics administration experience, either at the school or conference level. His well-rounded background has led to his knowledge of all areas within an athletics department, including marketing, financial administration, television negotiations, fund-raising, game operations, facility management, personnel policy, corporate interaction, sports management and public relations.

A 1985 MSU graduate, Hollis returned to his alma mater in 1995 as the associate athletics director for external relations. Since then, he has been a critical component of the athletic department executive management staff, helping guide the department through short- and long-range plans. In addition, Hollis, who has been a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee since 2012, served as vice chair for the 2015-16 season and will chair the committee for the 2016-17 academic year. He also was a former chair of the NCAA Division I Amateurism Cabinet and a former member of the NCAA's Men's Basketball Issues Committee.

Since his official appointment as athletics director began in 2008, Hollis has led one of the most successful periods in the history of Michigan State athletics. The Spartans have won one national championship (2014 women's cross country) and 29 Big Ten Championships (regular season and tournament), appeared in three Final Fours and eight bowl games, and own nine top-50 finishes in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup. In addition, during Hollis' tenure as an administrator at MSU, the Spartans have appeared in 19 consecutive men's basketball NCAA Tournaments – the longest streak in Big Ten history and the third-longest active streak in the nation – and seven Final Fours. The football team appeared in the 2015 College Football Playoff and has also won the Rose Bowl (2014) and Cotton Bowl (2015) in addition to three Big Ten titles in Hollis' tenure.

Hollis is credited with developing some of college athletics' most innovative events. It was his vision that led to Michigan State playing North Carolina in November 2011 in the first basketball game to be played on the flight deck of an aircraft carrier. In 2003, Hollis was the architect of the "BasketBowl," which established a then-world record crowd of 78,129 who witnessed the Michigan State-Kentucky game at Detroit's Ford Field. The concept, which involves placing the court in the center of a football stadium, has been used at the last eight NCAA Final Fours. In 2001, Hollis helped mastermind the Michigan State-Michigan outdoor hockey game that attracted a then world-record crowd of 74,554 in Spartan Stadium. His ingenuity and experience in intercollegiate athletics led to his induction into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA) Hall of Fame in June 2015.

Highlights in Mark Hollis' Tenure as Michigan State Athletics Director

- One NCAA Championship (2014 women's cross country) and 29 Big Ten Championships (regular season and tournament).
- Three Final Fours (2009, 2010, 2015).
- Eight bowl games, including three consecutive BCS/New Year's Six games (2014 Rose Bowl, 2015 Cotton Bowl, 2015 CFP Semifinal at Cotton Bowl).
- Nine top-50 finishes in Learfield Sports Directors' Cup.
- Eleven consecutive semesters of student-athletes posting a cumulative grade-point average better than a 3.0, including a record 3.101 in the spring of 2016.
- Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal/Daily Athletic Director of the Year (2012)
- National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame Inductee (2015)
- National Football Foundation John L. Toner Award (2015)
- NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee Chairman (2016-17)
- NCAA Division I Amateurism Cabinet – Former Chair
- NCAA Men's Basketball Issues Committee – Former Member

Future events Hollis designed include a 16-team men's college basketball tournament with Nike-sponsored schools in Portland, Oregon, in November 2017 to celebrate Nike President Phil Knight's 80th birthday.

Hollis was instrumental in landing a strategic long-range partnership between MSU Athletics and FOX Sports that was announced in April 2016. The two parties agreed to a new multimedia rights deal effective for the 2016- 17 academic year in which MSU will grant FOX Sports marketing and corporate partnership rights associated with its 25 varsity sports programs. The rights will be managed by FOX Sports College Properties, a division of FOX-owned Home Team Sports, and will include in-venue signage, print, radio, television programming, corporate hospitality, digital and social media integration, promotional and experiential activities, and intellectual property rights and official designations. The 15-year agreement will provide guaranteed revenues in excess of $150 million.

In June 2015, Hollis was named the recipient of the National Football Foundation John L. Toner Award, which is presented annually to an athletics director who has demonstrated superior administrative abilities and shown outstanding dedication to college athletics and particularly college football. Hollis was officially honored at the 58th NFF Annual Awards Dinner on Dec. 8, 2015, at the Waldorf Astoria in New York City.

During Hollis' tenure, Michigan State student-athletes have excelled not only in competition, but in the classroom as well. For 11 consecutive semesters, Spartan student-athletes have posted better than a 3.0 cumulative grade-point average. More than 400 student-athletes (419) posted a cumulative GPA above 3.0 in the spring semester of 2016, marking the highest total in the history of the department for the spring, and 19 teams maintained a cumulative 3.0 GPA. The spring semester of 2016 also saw Spartan student-athletes compile the highest cumulative grade-point average in program history at 3.101. Additionally, 270 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors and 78 garnered Big Ten Distinguished Scholar accolades throughout the 2015-16 academic year. A department record 328 student-athletes were honored at the 2016 SASS Academic Excellence Gala (student-athletes with at least a sophomore academic standing and a 3.0 or better cumulative GPA).

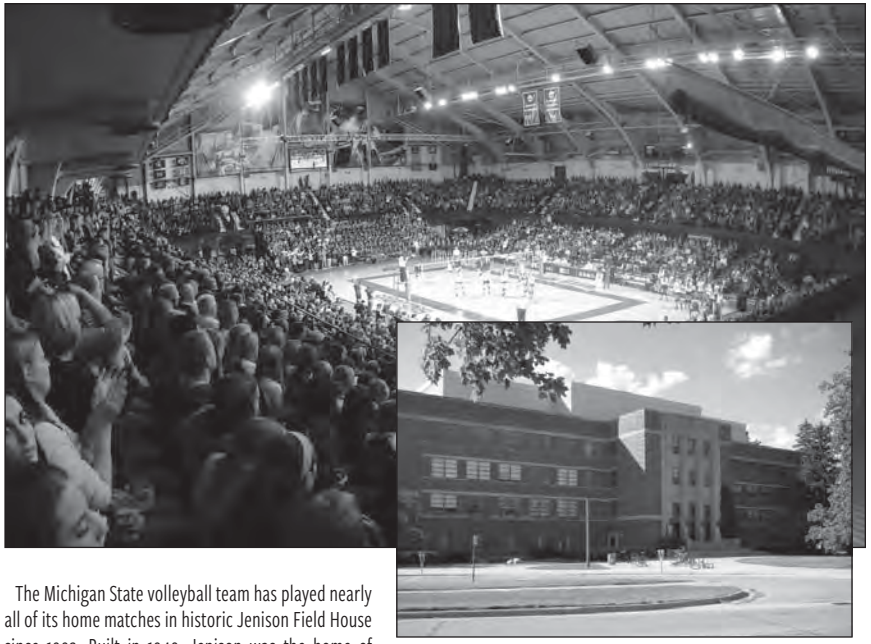
Headlined by a Big Ten Championship in football, the school's third conference title in six years, the Spartans finished in the top 50 of the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings for an 18th consecutive year in 2015-16. Michigan State earned a berth in the College Football Playoff following its victory over No. 4 Iowa in the Big Ten Championship Game and finished in the top 10 of the national polls for the third season in a row (No. 3 in 2013, No. 4 in 2014, No. 6 in 2016), a first for the program since 1955-57. The men's basketball team set a conference record by winning its fifth Big Ten Tournament title and established a Big Ten record by advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the 19th year in a row. Men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, volleyball, women's basketball, and women's gymnastics also advanced to their respective NCAA Championships.

Hollis was named athletics director designate on Sept. 12, 2007, and teamed with Mason in the transition throughout the fall of 2007. Hollis had previously served as the associate athletics director for external relations at Michigan State since November 1995. He coordinated marketing and promotions, community relations, special event fundraising, sports information, ticket operations, spirit groups, broadcast services and corporate sponsorships. He received the National Marketer of the Year Award by NACMA in May 2002.

Prior to returning to Michigan State, Hollis spent two years at the University of Pittsburgh as assistant and associate athletic director. Before his stint at Pitt, Hollis worked for the Western Athletic Conference. He joined the WAC as an administrative assistant immediately after college. Two years later, he was appointed assistant to the commissioner and soon thereafter was promoted to assistant commissioner.

Hollis earned his bachelor of arts degree in communication from Michigan State in 1985, where he served as a basketball team manager under Jud Heathcote. In 1992, he earned his MBA in business administration from the University of Colorado. He and his wife Nancy, have a daughter, Katy, and two sons, T.R. and Michael.

JENISON FIELD HOUSE



The Michigan State volleyball team has played nearly all of its home matches in historic Jenison Field House since 1993. Built in 1940, Jenison was the home of Spartan basketball until 1989 and is where Magic Johnson helped lead Michigan State to its first NCAA Championship in 1979.

Jenison, which is currently the home to the Spartan athletic department administrative offices as well as MSU volleyball, women's gymnastics, wrestling and men's and women's track & field, underwent extensive renovations in 2001. The volleyball facilities were improved to include a large new locker room, an expanded training room, a larger weight room and an improved equipment room. The building also houses locker rooms for baseball, women's rowing, soccer and softball.

For volleyball, the court runs north-south in the historic field house, and accommodates 5,017 fans in its courtside, reserved (chairback) and general-admission (bleacher) seating. Prior to the start of the 2011 season, MSU renovated Jenison Field House by installing retractable bleachers around the entire floor, featuring chair-back seating on the east and west ends. Jenison also received facelift with and new banners in the rafters and new lights. In addition, a state-of-the-art video board was installed on the north end of the building, allowing for instant highlights and pre-match announcements for all Jenison events. The sound system in Jenison received updated equipment to better serve the teams which compete in the facility.

The most recent updates in the facility came in 2014, as the volleyball locker room was renovated with new lockers and a new projector for film study in the volleyball locker room. These upgrades were possible thanks to generous gifts of several donors.

MSU hosted NCAA Tournament matches in 1995, 1996, 1998 and 2003. Jenison Field House features a wooden playing surface that saw its first action during the 2005 season.

The Spartan Side Out Club, the official booster club of Spartan volleyball, runs apparel sales at each home game to help raise funds for the MSU volleyball program. Kids Club members line the court on match day and provide support for the Spartans at Jenison.

For the third straight season, the Spartans have shattered attendance records. MSU's match vs. Michigan on Oct. 3, 2014 brought 6.218 fans into the arena, bettering the previous single-match record of 6,183 (also against the Wolverines) a season prior. Both are believed to be the largest non-men's basketball crowd to take in a Spartan sporting event in that venue.

MSU shattered nearly all its previous attendance records in 2014 as well, as the Spartans welcomed a program-record 43,918 fans to Jenison and averaged 2,928 fans per match, putting the Spartans ninth and 11th nationally, respectively, in total and average attendance. MSU set a new single-match Jenison Field House attendance record in 2015, when 6,218 fans took in MSU's showdown with archrival Michigan

This year, the Spartans will host 13 home matches, which includes two home tournaments. The Auto-Owners Insurance Spartan Invitational brings Central Michigan, Morgan State, and Florida to East Lansing Sept. 4-5, and the Spartan Classic (Sept. 16-17) features MSU in addition to Maryland-Eastern Shore, DePaul, and Notre Dame.

The Spartan strength and conditioning staff design sport-specific strength and conditioning programs for each of MSU's 25 men's and women's varsity teams. They also direct, motivate and individually customize each program to fit the needs each Spartan athlete.

The approximately 7,000 square foot Strength & Conditioning Facility housed at Jenison Field House includes the best of Pendulum, Power-Lift and Hammer equipment for the development of absolute strength; Free Motion Dual Cable machines to bridge the gap to functional strength; Perform Better balls and bands for core stabilization; Rogue, Sorinex and Keiser equipment to perfect power development and Woodway high-speed treadmills for ground-based conditioning and quickness. At the completion of each workout the Spartan Strength staff also supply nutritional recovery.

The Michigan State University Athletic Training/Sports Medicine and Performance Team is committed to delivering the highest quality health care to all of its student athletes. Spartan athletes receive top-of-the-line care which encompasses not only current state-of-the-art philosophies, equipment, and research in athletic training, but also have access to world-class orthopedic surgeons, Board Certified primary care physicians, chiropractors, sport psychologists, and nutritionists. This integrated care approach helps provide effective interdisciplinary care which both helps prevent and manage athletic-related injuries.

The volleyball locker room received updated lockers in the spring of 2014, and provides student-athletes with a place to watch game film, as well as prepare for practice and matches.

Several generous donors contributed to the locker room upgrades which were completed in the spring of 2014.

Before arriving at Michigan State, Cathy George had already established herself as one of the more well-respected coaches in the sport. Her decade-long tenure on the Spartan sideline has seen the Spartans ascend to one of the elite programs in the country. With five consecutive NCAA appearances under her belt (including two trips to the sweet 16), two returning All-Americans, and a pair of top-10 recruiting classes dotting her current roster, George is positioning MSU for another strong run in 2016.

George currently boasts a career record of 572-380 and is 207-154 while at MSU. She ranks 29th among active coaches for total wins in NCAA Division I volleyball, and ranks among the top 80 coaches all-time with a career .603 winning percentage.

MSU is coming off a season in 2015 in which it overcame a host of frustrating injuries to maintain its fifth consecutive season of .500 or better in the Big Ten (one of just four programs that have maintained that consistency), going 19-14 and 10-10 in Conference play. A fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament first-round win over No. 24 Arkansas State gave Michigan State a second-round matchup with No. 1 Washington, but the Spartans fell in four sets. MSU's streak of five consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances is the third-longest active streak in the Big Ten, behind Penn State and Nebraska; in addition, only four Big Ten schools have finished .500 or better in conference play in each of the last five seasons: MSU, Nebraska, Penn State, and Purdue.

In addition to team success, the Spartans also had high-achieving individual efforts. Both Chloe Reinig and Allyssah Fitterer were AVCA All-North selections, with Reinig also earning an Honorable Mention All-Big Ten nod. The Spartans also maintained their high standards in the classroom, with seven Academic All-Big Ten selections and three Big Ten Distinguished Scholars. George won her 200th match at Michigan State on Oct. 14, 2015, when the Spartans downed visiting Maryland at Jenison Field House.

While the on-court success has continued to climb, the program has maintained its tradition of excellence in the classroom and community as well. George's players include 61 Academic All-Big Ten selections and 13 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars over 11 seasons. In 2013, captain Kristen Kelsay (now an assistant coach with the program) was an Academic All-America selection, captured the Gwendolyn Norrell Community Service & Leadership Award at the Student-Athlete Support Services Academic Gala for excelling in the field of community service and outreach, then won both the Chester Brewer Leadership Award as well as the Dr. James Feurig Achievement Award (honoring dedication, honesty, academic achievement, and perseverance), two of MSU's major athletic awards, at the end of the 2013-14 academic year. In addition, she was named the Detroit Athletic Club Female College Athlete of the Year as well as the recipient of a Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarship. In 2016, senior Maggie Halloran earned the Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarship - she was the top female GPA recipient at the Student-Athlete Support Services (SASS) Academic Gala and maintained a perfect 4.0 GPA over her four seasons.

The Spartans boasted three Honorable Mention All-America selections in 2014 (tying it's program best), and pushed top overall seed Stanford before falling in four sets to the Cardinal in the NCAA Tournament. It was the fourth straight NCAA bid for MSU, only the second time in school history the Spartans accomplished that feat. During the season, senior Kori Moster cemented her spot in Big Ten volleyball lore, finishing third all-time in Big Ten history in career digs, while sophomore Chloe Reinig and freshman Rachel Minarick also were honored with post-season honors by both the AVCA and the Big Ten.

Every season, George's teams have attracted rapidly-growing crowds to Jenison Field House, ranking in the top-25 in Division I attendance in each of the last 20 years. The Spartans ranked eighth nationally in average attendance, (2,872), as 37,333 fans took in a volleyball match at Jenison Field House in 2015, the 11th highest total among Division I programs. The Spartans have set new attendance records in each of the last four seasons, with MSU setting a new single-game attendance mark at Jenison Field House in 2014 - attracting 6,218 fans for an Oct. 3 match vs. archrival Michigan.

The 2013 season was a banner year for the Spartans, who advanced to the Sweet 16 for the second consecutive season and boasted three All-America selections. MSU went 11-1 in the pre-Big Ten portion of its schedule, capturing the Spartan Invitational and Butler Invitational Tournament titles and defeating the NCAA runner-up in 2012, No. 12 Oregon. The team then started the Big Ten season 6-0 and was ranked as high as fifth in the country; the Spartans opened the conference slate with an upset of No. 1 Penn State (3-1) on its home court, and capped its 6-0 start with a 3-1 home win over then-No. 9 Nebraska. In the NCAA Tournament, MSU downed Ohio and host No. 17 Kentucky in the first weekend, drawing No. 2 Penn State in the round of 16; MSU won the first set, but fell to the eventual National Champion Nittany Lions by a 3-1 score.

The individual accolades poured in for MSU over the course of the season. Junior libero Kori Moster earned her second straight Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honor, was an All-America selection, and was one of 12 players selected by USA Volleyball for the U.S. Collegiate National Team to tour China in June 2014. Lauren Wicinski completed her career with All-America honors for the fourth season in her career, and was a unanimous First Team All-Big Ten selection. The four-time Big Ten Player of the Week was the AVCA National Player of the Week on Oct. 1 (MSU's first since 2003), led the Big Ten in points per set (5.20), and finished 13th all-time in NCAA history with 2,494 career kills. Classmate Alexis Mathews earned her first-ever All-Big Ten accolades and was an honorable mention All-America pick, while earning a spot in the USA Volleyball training block in the spring of 2014. Mathews left her considerable mark in the record book as well, as she is MSU's school recordholder in both single-season (172) and career (562) blocks and block assists (562), while sitting second all-time at MSU in career hitting percentage (.343) and total blocks (624). MSU's freshman class, which was ranked seventh nationally in the pre-season, saw an immediate impact from Chloe Reinig, who was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team and is eighth all-time among MSU freshmen in hitting percentage (.260), as well as classmate Allyssah Fitterer, an NCAA All-Regional team selection who also cemented her name in MSU's freshman record book in both block assists (82, sixth) and total blocks (88, ninth). She also set a single-match record for hitting percentage in a four-set match (.782 (12-1-14) vs. Northwestern, Nov. 8).

In 2012, the Spartans reached the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season and advanced to the Regional Semifinals for the second time in five years. MSU opened the tournament with a 3-2 win over No. 18 San Diego and then upset defending national champion UCLA on its home floor, 3-1, in-route to the Sweet 16. The Spartans opened the season on a 12-match win streak that included four tournament titles: The Spartan Showcase, UConn Classic, Spartan Invitational and Charleston Invitational. George won her 500th match at Iowa, and the Spartans swept Michigan on its home floor. In November, Michigan State won six consecutive Big Ten matches, the best streak in program history since 1998. During that stretch, the Spartans upset No. 4 Nebraska 3-2, defeating a top-5 opponent for the first time since 1996. MSU followed that with a 3-1 win at No. 10 Minnesota, winning back-to-back matches over top-10 teams for the first time since 1995. Kori Moster, earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and was also named All-Big Ten Honorable Mention. Junior outside hitter Lauren Wicinski was named to the 16-member All-Big Ten team and Halle Peterson was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team. It was also the first time since 1995 that two Spartans were named AVCA All-Americans in the same season. Wicinski received second-team honors and Moster earned honorable mention accolades. Wicinski ranked fourth in the NCAA in service aces per set with 0.63 and was seventh in the country in points per set with 5.33. Her mark of 4.43 kills per set also ranked 16th in the NCAA. Wicinski broke the single-season record for service aces at MSU with 81, breaking the previous record of 75 that had stood since 1983.

The Spartans made their way back to the NCAA Tournament in 2011, the ninth trip for George and her fourth at the helm of MSU. Michigan State started the season with six straight wins and two tournament titles, winning the UCF Classic and the Spartan Showcase. MSU closed out the non-conference schedule by winning the Spartan Invitational and started off 11-1 before the beginning of conference play. The Michigan State seniors stole the show on Nov. 18, 2011 and propelled the Spartans to a 3-1 win against then-No. 7 Illinois. One of the largest crowds of the season at Jenison Field House witnessed one of the most thrilling matches of the season. Redshirt sophomore Alexis Mathews, along with seniors Kyndra Abron, Jenilee Rathje and Becca Zlabis each tallied double-digit kills against the Fighting Illini. Rathje, one of the most decorated players in program history, was recognized as a third-team AVCA All-American and was a unanimous selection to the All-Big Ten First Team for the second straight season. Rathje finished her career first in sets played with 496 and second in matches with 142. She also ended her career seventh in block assists with 333 and eighth in kills with 1,504. Fellow senior Kyndra Abron was also named to the All-Big Ten team as an honorable mention and was named to the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team. Abron was joined on the COBRA team by redshirt sophomore Alexis Mathews.

The 2010 season saw the Green and White face one of the toughest schedules in the nation, as it played two of the 2009 NCAA semi-final teams over the course of the season. MSU opened up the year with its then seventh-straight MSU Showcase title before taking on the rigorous conference slate. The Spartans closed out the 2010 campaign by winning four of their last six matches, highlighted by an impressive 3-0 win over then-No. 19 Michigan on Senior Night at the Breslin Center, before a record-setting crowd of 6,824. As a result of the 3-0 win, MSU regained the "State Pride Flag" for the first time since 2006, also the last time the Spartans topped U-M in straight sets. Redshirt junior Jenilee Rathje became the 17th player in program history to amass 1,000-career kills as she earned unanimous first team All-Big Ten honors as well as being named an AVCA All-Mideast Region honorable mention selection. Junior Kyndra Abron was named to the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team while freshman Alexis Mathews was an honorable mention selection.

In 2009, the Spartans once again earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament. MSU opened the campaign by winning its first 12 matches of the season, the third-best start to a year all-time and the best since the 1976 season. Along the way to the third NCAA Tournament appearance in the last four seasons, the Green and White posted upset wins over then-No. 12 Southern California in the opening match of the year, as well as then-No. 12 Illinois in the Big Ten home opener. Sophomore Kyndra Abron became the first sophomore in program history to be named an AVCA All-America, earning an honorable mention selection. Abron also was just the third Spartan to earn All-Big Ten honors as a sophomore; joining Val Sterk (1994) and Jenna Wrobel (1996).

After losing 64% of the total offense from 2007, George was able to bring in a recruiting class which ranked No. 7 - at the time the best in MSU history - to help shoulder some of the void left by the graduating class. That recruiting class helped George compile a 15-16 overall record in 2008, despite playing five freshmen at a time for most of the season. George spent the spring of 2008 coaching the USA A2 Red team to the USA Adult Open Championship. The USA A2 Red Team topped the University of Washington's Huskies VBC team, 3-1, in Atlanta. George and University of Texas head coach Jerritt Elliott, the A2 Blue coach, conducted training of 20 selected collegiate student-athletes before the championships and split the student-athletes into two teams for competition. George's A2 Red Team took home the gold, while the Blue team finished with the bronze. This was George's second stint with USA Volleyball, after serving as an assistant coach for the US team at the 1999 World University Games.

George and her team celebrate her 200th victory at Michigan State, a 3-1 win over Maryland on Oct. 14, 2015

George guided the Spartans to the NCAA Regional Semifinals and a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten in 2007, going 21-14 overall. The Spartans entered postseason play in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2002-03. Under George's guidance, senior Ashley Schatzle became the Spartans' seventh AVCA All-American, leading the team with 553 kills.

George guided MSU to the 2006 NCAA Tournament in just her second year at the helm of the Spartan program. George led a rebuilding Spartan squad to a 19-12 overall record, including a 10-10 mark in Big Ten play. The Green and White made its first trip to postseason play since the 2003 campaign. Ashley Schatzle earned All-Big Ten honors while Katie Johnson repeated as an Honorable Mention All-Big Ten pick, and competed with the U.S. Women's National Volleyball A2 Program during the summer of 2007. Vanessa King garnered 2006 All-Big Ten Freshman Team accolades.

In George's first year as head coach, the Spartans finished the season with a 12-18 record, going 5-15 in conference action. George also saw three Big Ten Player of the Week honorees and two Third-Team 2006 ESPN Magazine Academic All-America Volleyball District IV Team members, while Katie Johnson earned All-Big Ten Honorable Mention honors.

George was hired as the fifth coach in the history of Michigan State volleyball in December of 2004. Prior to her hiring at Michigan State, George spent 11 years guiding the Western Michigan University program, where she compiled a 185-139 record. Taking over the reins at WMU prior to the 1994 season, George's Broncos qualified for eight NCAA Tournament appearances, reached eight consecutive MAC Tournaments beginning with the 1997 campaign, and her Bronco squad made back-to-back MAC Tournament title match appearances in 1999 and 2000, capturing the title in 2000. George reached the 300-win mark in 2000, and was named the MAC Coach of the Year that same season after guiding the Broncos to the MAC title. She has also gained international experience as an assistant coach for the 1999 U.S. Team in the World University Games, held in Mallorca, Spain.

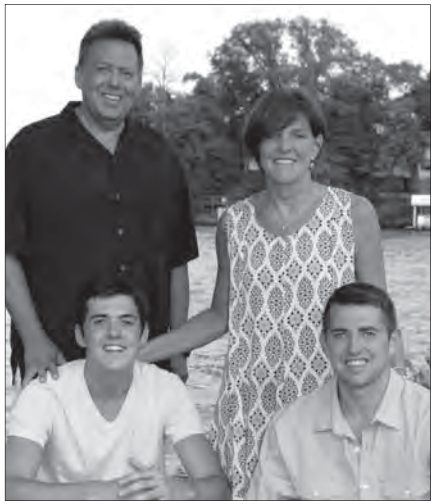
George's student-athletes at WMU earned all-conference and national honors while enjoying academic success. Sixteen players earned academic all-conference honors during her time at Western Michigan, while four players were named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District team. Her teams posted grade-point averages of 3.00 or better, and boasted a 100-percent graduation rate in 10 of her 11 seasons. On the court, George recruited high-caliber student-athletes, as three WMU players trained with various U.S. national teams. In 1999, two players were honored with the chance to compete with the Pan Am Games Training Team, while another Bronco was selected to the 2001 U.S. National A2 team. Western Michigan's success under George led to increased attendance, as the Broncos led the MAC in total attendance in eight of her 11 seasons. She also worked to reinstate the Bronco Spikers' Club, which takes part in activities involving the team throughout the year, including pre-match chalk talks, tailgates and post-match wrap-ups.

Prior to her arrival at Western Michigan, George was the head coach at Texas-Arlington from 1989-1993. She led UTA to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Tournaments, with a school-record third-place national finish in 1989. With the Mavs, she became the first woman to coach in the NCAA Division I Final Four (1989) and she earned Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors three times (1989, 1990, `92) as she posted a record of 93-74 in her five seasons. George's teams won Southland Conference titles in 1989, 1990 and 1992, were 37-4 in conference play (.902), and finished with a 10-2 record in postseason competition during her tenure.

George got her start as a collegiate coach at North Dakota State in 1987-88, leading the Bison to an 87-11 (.888) record in her two seasons. In 1987, NDSU posted a 44-8 mark en route to a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Division II Championships, and went 43-3 in 1988, finishing third. She was named North Central Conference and regional Coach of the Year in both 1987 and 1988, as well as garnering NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year honors in 1988.

A 1985 graduate of Illinois State and four-year letterwinner in the volleyball program, George helped the Redbirds win three consecutive Missouri Valley Conference titles and NCAA Tournament appearances. A team captain and crafty outside attacker, she was a three-time All-MVC selection who earned all-region honors.

George, who earned her master's degree in education from Central Michigan in 1987, resides in Okemos, Mich., with her husband Jerry, The couple has two sons - T.J., (a Michigan State graduate), and Conner, who currently attends the University and is a member of the men's basketball program.



Jerry and Cathy George with their sons Conner (L) and TJ.

JT WENGER

Assistant Coach • First season at MSU • UCLA '04

Jonathan (JT) Wenger joined the Michigan State coaching staff in the spring of 2016, and brings with him a wealth of elite-level volleyball experience that will be an asset to the Spartan program.

Prior to his move to East Lansing, Wenger spent four years on the staff at Colorado (2012-15), and was elevated to the position of Associate Head Coach of the Buffs in March 2014. He helped guide the Colorado to a pair of NCAA second-round appearances in 2013 and 2014, and a 57-42 record over his final three seasons. CU also worked its way up in the Pac-12 ranks during his time on staff: the Buffs tied for 10th in 2012 (4-16), were tied for seventh in 2013 (9-11), fourth in 2014 (11-9), and most recently fifth in 2015 (11-9).

Wenger joined the CU program after six seasons with the UCLA men's volleyball team. Wenger served as an assistant under legendary men's coach Al Scates, who retired after his 50th season in 2012 as the winningest coach in Division I volleyball history, directing the Bruins to 19 NCAA Championships.

The AVCA twice recognized Wenger as a "30 Under 30" selection, honoring him in 2009 and again in 2010. This award was created in 2009 to honor thirty of the up-and-coming volleyball coaches under 30 years old in the sport at all levels of the game. Between his time at CU and at UCLA, he coached nine AVCA All-Americans, (five first team selections) 22 all-conference picks, and 34 academic all-conference honorees.

Wenger has also worked extensively with USA Volleyball. In 2011 he was an assistant coach for the USA Men's World University Games in Shenzhen, China, and in the summer of 2009 helped coach the USA Men's Junior National Team at the World Championships in Pune, India. Wenger also coached with the USA High Performance program in 2007, 2008, 2010, and 2015.

Wenger had success as a high school and club coach before returning to a collegiate sideline. He guided the Marymount High School girls' team to the 2011 California DI State Championship game and the 2002 California DIII State Championship. Wenger also coached the Sunshine Volleyball Club 14's in 2003, 04 and 06.

Wenger was a standout collegiate player, a three-time varsity letterwinner (2001, `03 and `04) for Scates at UCLA; in each of those three seasons, UCLA made the MPSF Tournament. The Bruins were the NCAA runner-up in 2001, made regionals in 2002, and were regional semifinalists in 2004. As a senior co-captain in 2004, he played in 28 matches and recorded 216 kills, helping the Bruins to a 24-6 record. Wenger graduated with a BA in political science in May of 2004 and was a 10-time member of the Director's Honor Roll.

He went on to play professionally after graduation for the Corozal Plantaneros in Corozal, Puerto Rico in June 2004, at which point he worked in the finance industry in Chicago before returning to coach at UCLA.

A native of Highland Park, Ill., Wenger was a two-sport athlete (soccer and volleyball) at Highland Park High School, and was named the Illinois Volleyball Player of the Year as a senior in 1999. He and his wife, Marissa, reside in Okemos with their daughter, Vivienne, and son, Reid.

KRISTEN KELSAY

Assistant Coach • Second season at MSU • Michigan State '14

A 2014 graduate of Michigan State, Kristen Kelsay brings not only a wealth of high-level playing experience, but also serves as a strong mentor to current Spartan student-athletes in balancing both athletics and academics.

As a three-year Spartan captain, she also possesses an excellent grasp of the core values and philosophies of the Michigan State volleyball program. The second-year assistant is the program's recruiting coordinator, and works extensively with the operating the team's offense, particularly the setters. In addition, she is the team's academic liaison with Student-Athlete Support Services, and also plays a large role with the Spartan volleyball camps and the team's community outreach activities.

Once Kelsay enrolled at Michigan State in the fall of 2010, she almost immediately made an impact on those around her, serving as a team captain for three seasons. She appeared in 133 career matches, which ranks eighth all-time at MSU, and her 473 career sets ranks fourth all-time. As a senior, Kelsay earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honors (just the fourth player in program history to do so), and was a three-time Big Ten Distinguished Scholar and Academic All-Big Ten selection. She twice was a Big Ten Sportsmanship Award winner, served as the Student-Athlete Advisory Council president, and was featured in the MSU President's Report "'Inside Out,' which followed nine Michigan State students whose lives were documented throughout the 2013 fall semester.

After her graduation, Kelsay accepted a position as a graduate assistant in MSU's Student-Athlete Support Services (SASS). While pursuing her graduate degree in Athletic Administration, Kelsay served as an academic counselor and helped oversee the department's community outreach initiatives.

Kelsay is a product of the prestigious Sports Performance Volleyball Club in Aurora, Ill., where she set her team to the 2010 AAU National Championship and earned All-America honors. In high school, the Wheaton, Ill. native was a three-year letterwinner at St. Francis High School, leading her team to a state runner-up finish in 2007 and back-to-back regional championships her junior and senior years.

Kelsay resides in East Lansing.

MIKE OWEN

Volunteer Assistant Coach • First season at MSU
Harvard '14

Mike Owen joined the Michigan State staff in early 2016, and will serve the coming season as a volunteer assistant coach.

Owen is a 2014 graduate of Harvard, where he was a four-year varsity letterwinner on the men's volleyball team. He graduated in seventh place on Harvard's all-time block assist list with 131, and was 10th on Harvard's all-time total block list with 141. Playing in 91 of the 96 matches for the Crimson over four years, Owen played both outside hitter and middle blocker. He helped Harvard to a 60-36 overall record in that stretch, which included three seasons of 15 or more wins and an EIVA record of 30-18. He graduated in June of 2014 with a degree in Applied Mathematics.

After completing his degree, he moved on to Nebraska, where he served as a graduate assistant in 2014 and 2015. Owen's duties included helping with video breakdown of opponents and he was also responsible for scout team duties. The season culminated in a Husker National Championship behind a 32-4 record and second-place finish in the Big Ten, (17-3).

The Middleton, Wis. native was as a four-year high school letterwinner and three-year starter in volleyball and also earned multiple varsity letters in both basketball (three) and tennis (two).

HALLE PETERSON

Student Assistant Coach

A four-year Spartan letterwinner, Halle Peterson will serve as a student assistant coach at her alma mater in the 2015 season. She will be involved in working on film breakdown and scouting reports, as well as other areas of match preparation.

Peterson was a setter for the Spartans until a series of injuries curtailed much of her junior and senior seasons. The psychology major earned Academic All-Big Ten honors three times (2013, 2014, and 2015) and was a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar in each of her final two collegiate seasons. As a first-year player in 2012, Peterson was a selection to the Big Ten All-Freshman team, and was a part of the Big Ten's inaugural Foreign Tour in the summer of 2014. As a senior, she was the MSU's honoree as the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award winner and was voted Most Inspirational by her team at the year-end awards banquet.

In 2015, Michigan State ...

- Finished with a 19-14 overall record, (10-10 B1G).
- Played the eighth-toughest schedule in the nation, as seven of MSU's 11 non-conference opponents made the NCAA Tournament.
- Ranked 11th in the country in total attendance over 13 home dates, (37,333), and MSU's average attendance of 2,872 was eighth nationally.
- Made its 18th overall NCAA Tournament appearance, and earned its fifth consecutive at-large bid to the Championship, the second-longest streak in school history.
- Won at least one NCAA Tournament game in each of the last five years, the first time in school history.
- Was receiving votes in the final AVCA poll.
- Won the Holly Young Invitational at New Hampshire and finished second at Kentucky's Bluegrass Invitational in it's pre-B1G schedule, and also won ACC/Big Ten Challenge matches at North Carolina and Duke.
- Took a four-match winning streak into NCAA's, and downed No. 24 Arkansas State before falling to top-ranked Washington, 3-1, in a hard-fought match in Seattle.
- Is one of just four schools to finish .500 or better in Big Ten play over the last five seasons, along with Penn State, Nebraska, and Purdue.
- Saw head coach Cathy George win her 200th match at Michigan State, a win over Maryland on Oct. 14.
- Saw two players earn AVCA All-North Region honors: Chloe Reinig and Allyssah Fitterer.
- Saw seven players earn Academic All-Big Ten honors, and two earn a perfect 4.0 in the fall 2015 semester. Eleven players posted Fall 2015 GPA's higher than their cumulative GPA, which led to a team semester GPA of 3.15 and a team cumulative GPA of 3.18.
- Earned six in-season All-Tournament team selections, including one Tournament MVP.
- Earned a combined six weekly awards from the Big Ten, a program record. The previous record was five, set in 1995.

• The Big Ten Conference is the preeminent Division I volleyball conference in the country, with its teams battling through a gauntlet of tough regular-season games and excelling on the national level. The Conference's level of success was once again on display in 2015, as Nebraska earned its fourth National Championshp, and gave the Conference a third straight national title.

• Nine Big Ten volleyball teams were selected to the 2015 NCAA Volleyball Tournament, with first- and second-round matches held Dec. 3-4. Big Ten Champion Minnesota enters the tournament as the No. 2 overall seed, while No. 4 Nebraska, No. 6 Wisconsin, No. 7 Penn State and No. 12 Ohio State also earned top-16 seeds. Illinois, Michigan, Michigan State and Purdue also received at-large bids to the national tournament.

• The Big Ten announced its postseason volleyball awards, with standouts from Minnesota, Nebraska and Wisconsin earning recognition following the conclusion of the 2015 regular season. The Golden Gophers' Daly Santana was named the Big Ten Player of the Year by a vote of the conference's coaches. Nebraska's Justine Wong-Orantes was tabbed the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year while Wisconsin's Lauren Carlini was named Setter of the Year. Minnesota's Samantha Seliger-Swenson earned Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors, while Minnesota head coach Hugh McCutcheon was named Big Ten Coach of the Year by the conference's coaches and media contingent.

• Twenty-five Big Ten volleyball players were honored with American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-America and honorable mention honors as announced by the AVCA. A Big Ten record-setting 16 players were placed on either the first, second or third team, the most since 14 players earned All-America honors in 2012.

• All-Region Honors: Twenty-nine Big Ten volleyball players were honored with American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-Region honors as announced by the AVCA. In addition, Minnesota's Samantha Seliger-Swenson and Wisconsin's Tionna Williams garnered AVCA North and Northeast Region Freshman of the Year honors, respectively, while Minnesota head coach Hugh McCutcheon was named the AVCA North Region Coach of the Year.

Annelies Knoppers

1974-84; 250-197-18 (12-35 Big Ten)

Knoppers was named head coach of the fledgling program prior to the 1974 season, and guided MSU to 102 victories in her first three seasons. She brought the Spartans to the AIAW National Tournament in 1975 and 1976, and guided MSU into the Big Ten when the Conference began sponsoring volleyball in 1983. Knoppers won 20 or more matches in six of her 11 seasons.

Chuck Erbe

1993-2004; 244-140 (140-100 Big Ten)

Erbe helped bring the program to national prominence; MSU made the NCAA Tournament in 10 of his 12 seasons, going 10-10 in those trips. He coached the Spartans into the NCAA Semifinals in 1995, and under his guidance, players earned 29 All-Big Ten selections and five All-America distinctions. He was inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame in 2013.

Cathy George

2005-present; 207-154 (96-124 Big Ten)

George has established a consistent level of success within the Spartan program, bringing MSU back into the national spotlight as the Big Ten has emerged as the best volleyball conference in the country. She has guided MSU to the NCAA Tournament in seven of her 10 seasons, including Sweet Sixteen appearances in 2007, 2012 and 2013.

The 2013 seniors celebrate a fourth-straight State Pride Flag victory

Michigan State and Michigan share a long history of rivalries in both academics and athletics. Beginning in 1990, the two state of Michigan Big Ten institutions began a "State Pride" season series to celebrate the in-state rivalry. A state of Michigan flag bearing the motto "Tuebor" or "I will defend," serves as a symbol of the volleyball rivalry with the winner of the season's face-to-face matches retaining possession of the flag for a year. The flag flew over the State Capitol on Sept. 18, 1990. In addition to the State flag, each school's winning year is listed on its half of a special Michigan State-Michigan banner.

- The school that wins both matches will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
- If teams split the matches, the school that wins the greatest number of games will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
- If both teams have won the same number of games, the school with the most total points is the "State Pride" winner.
